

BOOM!

Tuesday Morning, JANUARY 30, 1883. DOORS OPEN AT 7 O'CLOCK, A. M.

EXPLOSION OF THE BOOM!

TAKES PLACE, RAIN OR SHINE.

Fire! Fire! Fire! $35,000

Lamaze's Goods

IN EVERY DEPARTMENT.

Not an article, however insignificant, has escaped destruction, and it is visible all over our establishment.

By smoke and fire at last week's fire, having been bought by us of Fleischer, Weyer & Co. at an enormous discount, enables us to offer same at

PANIC PRICES. WE MAKE OUR BOW

before the public of Portland and vicinity with no promises but what we intend to strictly adhere to. It shall be our earnest endeavor to identify our customers' interests with our own. Everything

Plain Fires: Strictly One Price

Goods Sold Regardless of Value. TO ALL.

NO SPLITTING OF DIFFERENCE IN PRICE.

The motto of all successful and mutually beneficial commercial enterprises at the present time,

SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK SALES

WE SHALL ENDEAVOR TO FOLLOW IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF THAT PRINCE OF MERCHANTS, THE LATE

A. T. STEWART

And will introduce from time to time innovations in the trade substantially those which gained for him such marvelous and unprecedented results.

If you are in search of the best-value for your money, come and see us; we have bargains marked at prices never before heard of, much less seen, in Portland. If you find, after purchasing at our establishment, that the same goods can be bought for less money elsewhere, we will

CHEERFULLY REFUND THE COIN.

E. WINEBURGH & CO.

Successors to Mellich Bros. & Co. 126 FIRST STREET, PORTLAND, OREGON.

THE OREGONIAN, TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 30, 1883.

FROM THE PULPIT.

Delivered in this city yesterday. Reported in Brief.

Doctrines of Methodism, Episcopalianism, and Congregationalism.

THE OREGONIAN, TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 30, 1883.

THE OREGONIAN, TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 30, 1883.

THE OREGONIAN, TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 30, 1883.

THE OREGONIAN, TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 30, 1883.

